This will settle the contest between the two teams, as each has won from the other. In the first game the oil men won with a score of 4 to 0, while in the last game played two weeks ago the results tallied 3 to 2 in the U. C. T. boys' favor. The game will begin at 3 o'clock.

A BASE ON BALLS COSTS CUBS GAME

Cheney, With Three Brooklyn Runners on, Passes Moran and Daubert is Forced Across With a Run.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Cheney's wildness coupled with bunched hits by the Brooklynites Wednesday cost Chicago the first game of the last series with Brooklyn here. The score was three to one.

Daubert opened the second inning with a single and Smith sacrificed. Fischer walked and Rucker beat out a boundary filling the bases. Moran drew a base on balls and Daubert was forced across the plate. Cutshaw followed with a single, which scored Fischer and Rucker. A base on balls to Miller and Archer's triple saved the locals a shutout. Chicago had several opportunities of scoring but Rucker tightened up and cut off these.

Brooklyn—030 000 000—3 8 1
Chicago—010 000 000—1 6 0
Rucker and Fischer; Cheney and Archer. Umpires—Rigler and Byron.

INDIANS TAKE GAME IN TWELFTH INNING

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 11.—Indianapolis defeated St. Paul five to four in 12 innings in the first game here Wednesday and the second was called on account of rain at the end of the sixth inning with the score tied three to three.

Brandt started the first game for the locals but was knocked out of the box in the second inning. Brandt, who succeeded him, held the visitors scoreless until the twelfth when a pass to Betty Crandall's safe hit, Niles sacrifice and Krug's infield single put over the winning run. Schardt pitched a strong game throughout.

In the second game Wetzel was hammered out of the box in the second inning and Laroey went in against his former teammates, holding them scoreless after the second.

PIRATES CAN'T HIT WITH MEN READY TO SCORE

Murray Features Game Won by New York When He Throws McQuillan Out on a Hit to Right Field.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11.—Tresreau was wild Wednesday afternoon, but effective with men on bases and New York took the first game of the series from Pittsburgh five to two.

New York won in the seventh when they scored three runs on Shafer's walk, Murray's safe hit, Meyers' two-bagger and a single by Merkle. In the first inning, Burns doubled, scoring Fletcher who had forced Viox and Wagner gave Pittsburgh runs in the eighth. In the third Doyle.

A double by Doyle and a single by Burns got them another run in the third. Excepting for the seventh inning, McQuillan pitched nice ball. In this chapter Meyers' long fly went for a double because Carey misjudged it, and Merkle's single that drove in two runs passed between Viox's legs.

A double by Carey, and singles by Viox and Wagner gave Pittsburgh runs in the eighth. In the third Doyle.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 11.—With Huggins on third base and one man out in the tenth inning Oakes hit safely to right, sending over the winning run for St. Louis in the opening game of the series with Philadelphia, score two to one.

It was a good pitchers' battle between Doak and Rixey and but for some stupid base running by Lee Magee in the third inning, when St. Louis scored its first run, the locals should have been returning the victory without going into an extra inning. Sherwood Magee's double followed by a single by Cravath in the seventh inning saved Philadelphia from a shut out.

Philadelphia 000 000 100 0—1 6 2
St. Louis—001 000 000 1—2 9 2
Rixey and Kilgus; Doak and Wingo. Umpires—Eason and Brennan.

Perdue was succeeded in the second inning by Rudolph, who, while hit often, kept them scattered. Johnson, who started on the mound for Cincinnati, was wild and was taken out in the seventh after yielding a three base hit, a base on balls and uncorrecting a wild pitch. Ames succeeded him.

USES AUTOMOBILE TO TAKE DOG TO POND

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—When "Gyp", a bulldog owned by Walter Leverenz, pitcher on the St. Louis American league club, was sentenced to the city dog pound Wednesday because it had bitten a child, Max Leverenz, father of the baseball player, pleaded with Municipal Judge Scully to prevent the animal being sent away in the city's dog catcher's wagon.

"I cannot bear to see this blue-blooded dog ride with a lot of common curs," said Leverenz.

After a delay of an hour a friend was found who took the animal to the pound in his automobile.

The locals took a run lead in the first following Engle's single and Speaker's triple. Two hits and two infield outs and a man hit by a pitched ball gave Detroit two runs and the lead in the second inning.

WINTER MEMBERS ARE COMING BACK

South Bend's Contributions to League Baseball Return From Their Summer Work—Nespo Had Good Season.

One by one the members of South Bend's winter colony of baseball players are arriving in the city. No less than eight leaguers are either here or have stopped for a few hours to chat with friends.

The men who have returned to South Bend are: Eddie Wheeler, manager of the Beaumont team of the Texas league; Ed Smith, manager of the pennant winning Grand Rapids club; "Buck" Connors, first baseman Rockford, Ill.; Claffey Corbett, pitcher, Winnipeg, Can., team of the Northern league, and Frank Nespo of the Fort Wayne club. "Goat" Anderson is expected to come here today from Terre Haute.

Nespo had the most successful seasons. Smith pitched and managed for the Black Sox, while Nespo has been one of the big noises of the Billikent infield. Smith is expected to be the premier twirler of the Central this year and if he does not land the first place he is sure of second.

He has but one rival who has a chance at the honors and that is Tommy Atkins, the Fort Wayne hurler. For the past few weeks these two pitchers have been fighting hard to win enough games to put them on top. It has been a close race and fans are waiting with interest for the official records from Heilbroner's office.

Nespo has had the Fort Wayne followers with him ever since he joined the club. The little fellow has been displaying the best of baseball this year. Last year was his first year in Central league company when he wore the uniform of the Green Sox.

Now that quite a few of the old guards are back, arrangements have been made to have the bunch get together again in uniform. Sunday afternoon this combination of leaguers will go to Michigan City to meet the main club. Tieman will do the catching for his club, Nespo will probably be at short and Wells, a local lad, will hold down his regular place at the far sack.

GROOM HOLDS NAPS ALL WAY THROUGH

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Washington made it three straight from Cleveland Wednesday, winning two to one.

Bob Groom, Griffith's elongated twirler, went in to bring Washington a game nearer to second place in the American league race, and accomplished his task in fine shape. He allowed but five hits, three of them coming in the fourth when Cleveland scored its only run; struck out eight men, gave no bases on balls, brought in Washington's first tally with a long fly to center, and singled the only time he was officially credited with being at bat.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Frank Bogash, Jr., Thomas Murphy's big brown pacer, captured the Syracuse 2:11 pacing stake valued at $5,000 Wednesday at the state fair grand circuit meeting. Hard pressed by Leta J., the Murphy entry was forced to the limit, but showed his wonderful fighting qualities and superior stamina in the final heat when he paced the last half in 59 1-4 and negotiated the last quarter in 28 seconds flat, the best time made since the meeting opened.

After winning the first heat in a whipping finish, Frank Bogash was defeated in the second heat, Leta J. rushing past him a few yards from the finish. Murphy drove his entry hard in the last two heats and won easily. View Elder fell coming into the stretch in the third heat and was distanced. Ray Brown, driving, escaped unhurt and View Elder suffered only minor injuries.

The 2:25 pace was won by John H. in straight heats after Polly Patch had won the first two heats handily. Bismya captured the 2:25 trot in straight heats, giving a wonderful exhibition of speed in the first and last heats, and Lady Wanda scored a hollow victory in the 2:24 trot.

When Ritchie was asked about his $2,500 forfeit posted to guarantee his appearance in the ring he said: "I gave them a check on my bank in San Francisco and have wired to stop payment on the check, so I don't think they will get anything on it."
